MATTERS PROPOSED, DISCUSSED, OR DECIDED

Sharla Barber welcomed everyone to this year's council. Everyone in the group introduced themselves and the role they have. Marjorie Brown nominated Lori Cable to be the school community council chair this year. Heidi Conway seconded the motion. All were in favor. Marjorie Brown nominated Luke Isley as the co-chair for this year's council and Heidi Conway seconded the motion. All members were in favor.

Clubs needing to be approved were passed around the council. Members read through the objectives of the clubs and what was involved. Lori Cable mentioned that the Comedic Enthusiasts did not have a faculty member supporting the club. She also said that the Happy Hikers Club had activities but were not specific on where they were going. Some members were concerned about the safety of students. Another club talked about was the Gay-Straight Alliance Club. Members wanted more information on the specific activities and service projects. Dave McKee will find out more about the club and will check with the district on guidelines. Trina Ward wanted to know if the Polynesian Club accepted anyone into the club. It did not specify who was able to join. Other questions were asked regarding how the clubs are going to give back to the school or community and how they are creating unity within the school. The Jedi Club needs more of an educational tie to school and the Wrestling Club needed more general information. Heidi Conway made a motion to approve all clubs brought before the council pending the adjustments mentioned above. KRISTEN WILLIAMS SECONDED THE MOTION AND ALL WERE IN FAVOR.

SHARLA BARBER UPDATED THE COUNCIL ON HOW THE BEGINNING OF THE YEAR WENT THIS YEAR WITH REGISTRATION AND CLASS CHANGES. SHE EXPRESSED HOW THIS HAS BEEN ONE OF THE BEST YEARS SO FAR. SENIORS ARE BEING MET WITH AND GIVEN INFORMATION REGARDING GRADUATION, COLLEGE ADMISSIONS, ACT, AND SCHOLARSHIPS. MRS. WARD SAID THAT SHE HAS FELT LIKE IT HAS GONE WELL ON THE TEACHER SIDE AS WELL.

DAVE MCKEE TOLD EVERYONE HOW HAPPY HE WAS TO HAVE THEM SERVE ON THE COUNCIL. TODAY'S SCC MEETING ENDED AT 4:05 P.M.
