

Drawing

I can create a portrait using pen and show at least 6 different values from light to dark.

I can create an artist statement based on symbolic meaning and representation from my own life.

I can use a "Still Life" drawing to convey symbolic meaning in regards to myself.
I can create a realistic "Still - Life" drawing to show my understanding of working with graphite.

I can respond to my peers' artworks by giving constructive criticism about their piece.

I can respond to critique and analysis of my own work.

I can use charcoal to create an accurate rendering of the human hand.

I can create a piece using my imagination or inspiration from real life to create something interesting.

I can utilize the shading techniques that I've learned and apply them to an imaginative art piece.

I can use white charcoal on black paper to create "implied" texture with drawing an animal.

I can create a self portrait using both black and white charcoal on mid-tone paper.
